YOUTH CREATIVE ARTS &

CONNECT WITH US!

Oneida County 4-H will be hosting the 2024 Youth Creative Arts & Communication Expo at the ADRC in Rhinelander on April 13, 2024 from 9 a.m. to 11:30 a.m.

Registration is now open on 4HOnline through March 18th for youth in grades K-8 (public/private/homeschool) to participate in this event.

Participants can display or present one or more arts or communication based projects in the following areas:

- Art
- Music Performance
- Drama
- Photography
- Cake Decorating
- Woodworking
- Yarn Work
- Crocheting
- Sewing
- Demonstration

This event is free for 4-H members and visitors!

Projects do not need to be ready until April 13th.

This is a great opportunity for youth to share their talents and skills with others in the community!

4-H staff live and work here.

We are here to help serve youth in Oneida County.

COMMUNICATION EXPO

Why Youth Should Participate:

- To challenge yourself.
- To feel good about yourself.
- To receive a neat medal.
- To try something new.
- To meet others.
- To be with other youth who might share your interests.

Participants will display or present one or more arts or communication based projects, and will receive feedback from knowledgeable community members in a small group setting. There will be a variety of hands-on learning creative arts stations, where youth will have a chance to explore new interests and master skills.

HOPE TO SEE YOU THERE!

NORTHWOODS EXPLORERS 4-H CLUB HAPPENINGS

In February, members of the Northwoods Explorers 4-H Club played BINGO with local nursing home residents. The 4-H club also sponsored the prizes that were handed out! Special thanks to 4-H member Claire for helping coordinate this activity!

Oneida County 4-H Junior Leader Olive did a great job co-leading her first 4-H Cloverbud program in February! Dinosaur Explorers was a hit and all the participants had a blast! In this photo, participants are making fossils.
